

DALLAS BAPTIST UNIVERSITY

Ph.D. in Leadership Studies

INTERNATIONAL APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

In addition to the Gary Cook School of Leadership Ph.D. Program application and additional requirements, non-USA citizens must complete the following:

Submit the following documents to the Ph.D. Office:

- English Requirement – complete ONE of the following
  - Provide an official TOEFL score of at least 79 (internet version), 213 (computer version), 550 (paper-based version), or
  - Provide an IELTS score of at least 6 on the overall band with no section band lower than 5, or
  - TOEFL or IELTS may be waived with documentation of the completion of an accredited master's degree from the United States

Submit the following documents to the DBU International Admissions Office:

- Joint Certificate of Financial Responsibility (You may access this document at <https://www.dbu.edu/international/new-students/admissions-steps.html>)
- Copy of Passport Identification Page

Additionally, the invited applicant must be able to come in-person for an interview during a one-day Admissions Interview Event at DBU. The applicant will provide a writing sample and meet with department and Ph.D. program faculty to provide all parties with opportunities to assess the reciprocal compatibility of the program and applicant.

GARY COOK
SCHOOL of LEADERSHIP
DALLAS BAPTIST UNIVERSITY