

DBU Choirs Tour the United Kingdom

by Dr. Bob Brooks
Dean, College of Fine Arts

Cathedrals and churches throughout England and Scotland were alive with the sound of DBU music this spring as the DBU choirs toured the United Kingdom, under the leadership of Dr. Stephen Holcomb, Dr. Bob Brooks, and Sue Mitz.

The University Chorale and Chamber Singers presented concerts at Saint Paul's Cathedral and Saint James' Piccadilly Church in London and at Saint Giles' Cathedral and Greyfriar's Church in Edinburgh. The Greyfriar's concert had the unique opportunity of combining musical forces with the University of Edinburgh Orchestra.

The opportunity for fellowship through music was plentiful. The concerts were well received and were a high point of the tour. The touring group also included DBU faculty and staff and family members of some singers in the Chorale. An excellent tour guide, Morwenna, enhanced the great trip. As the group was leaving her at the airport on the final day, she said, "I have been so impressed by the spirit of service of this group. I will miss you." Isn't it amazing how servant leadership is witnessed so readily by someone outside of the DBU community? It was a great trip—it was a great time of service!
